

Town Pastors (Bury St Edmunds)

Before completing the accompanying application form please read the following explanatory notes. These are intended to help you decide if you wish to apply to be a Town Pastor.

What is a Town Pastor?

A Town Pastor, working as part of a team and in collaboration with the police and local council, seeks to be a positive influence principally on the streets of the town centre and other night life areas. Town Pastors would typically be out at the weekends in these places from around 10.00pm until the early hours.

The role of a Town Pastor is not primarily evangelistic but rather about listening, caring and helping young people. It is about showing concern and offering assistance where appropriate, in a non-judgmental and unconditional way.

Town Pastors seek to be a positive presence on the streets, available to offer support to vulnerable people, de-escalate potential trouble and generally assist the police and other agencies.

For reasons of personal safety and to make the most effective use of the Town Pastors, they are monitored by CCTV in the town centre area and are in radio contact with the CCTV control room.

The police and local council support Town Pastors on the streets of Bury St Edmunds. Town Pastors has been in operation in Bury St Edmunds since May 2008 and we are now seeking to recruit additional Town Pastors.

Expectations and Commitment

A team of four Town Pastors will be out on the streets at any time. The team will then divide and patrol in pairs. The desire and ability to work as part of a team is therefore essential.

To be a Town Pastor you must be over 18 and a Christian who is part of a local church.

Town Pastor teams are out in the town centre on most Friday and Saturday nights. The teams patrol from 10.00pm to around 4.00am. Very occasionally, they will patrol on other nights if requested by the police. On average, each Town Pastor is expected to be out one night a month. You will be given the opportunity to indicate your availability each month.

Training

Training is an essential part of becoming a Town Pastor. Effective training also ensures we can deliver a quality service in a consistent way. Each Town Pastor must have completed the basic training programme before joining a team and going out.

Additional training will also be delivered and it is important that Town Pastors commit to participating in their ongoing training and development.

The basic training package will cover:

- The values, role and responsibilities of a Town Pastor.
- Prayer
- Drug and alcohol awareness training.
- Conflict management and personal safety.
- Basic First Aid

This will be delivered in training sessions on the following dates:

Saturday 3rd June, 9.00am - 3.30pm

And four evenings - Tuesday 6th, Wednesday 14th, Thursday 22nd & Monday 26th June.

It is essential that would-be Town Pastors attend all sessions.

How to apply

Please prayerfully consider becoming a Town Pastor. The first step towards this is to complete the accompanying application form and return it to:

Mrs Jo Copsey, Sundial House, Bargate Lane, West Row, Bury St Edmunds, IP28 8PS.

If possible, applications should arrive by Wednesday 17th May 2017.

Applications received after this date will be considered if places are still available on the Town Pastor training course.

Interviews will be held on the following evenings: Monday 22nd May and Thursday 25th May 2017.

Please indicate your 1st and 2nd choice of interview dates. An interview may be able to be arranged on an alternative date if you unavailable on both of the interview dates.

If you would like to find out more before applying, or the interview/training dates cause a problem, please contact: Jo Copsey – Tel: 07594 334215, or email: info@burytownpastors.org.uk
