

Year 3 Autumn 1 Topic Overview 2019

Surviving in the Stone Age

- Hunting was crucial during the Stone Age times. How did they do it?
- Stone Age people needed safe places to live. Where did they make their homes?
- What did they use to hunt?
- What happened to the animals?

Books to read and a website to explore

UG- Raymond Briggs

Stone Age Boy- Satoshi Kitamura

The Stone Age: Hunters, Gatherers and Woolly Mammoths- Marcia Williams

<https://www.dkfindout.com/uk/explore/stone-age-guide-for-parents-and-teachers/>

Caveman Capers

Rock the Earth Quiz!

- How do rocks form (igneous, sedimentary and metamorphic)?
- What might you find inside the rocks?
- Have you ever found a fossil? Who found the first one? What are they made of?
- What were rocks used for?
- What is soil?
- What can you find in it?

What is at Orkney Village?

English

- Building towards writing a non-chronological report about hunter-gatherers.
- Once experts, we are going to write diaries as a child during the Stone Age moving into the Iron Age.

Headings, sub-headings, captions, labels, pictures, diagrams, paragraphs, conjunctions, adjectives and past tense.

Local Community Challenge

What can you find out about the local dig at Powick?

Vocabulary
hunter-gatherers
cave dwellers
Neolithic Neanderthal tribe mammoth evolve
sabre-toothed
tiger